

Can you give me the...

Can

The thumb and pointer finger create an L shape in front of the nose. Bring the two fingers closer together to touch whilst moving the hand forward away from the face.

You

One hand is placed in front of the chest. The pointer finger is extended with the other fingers in a fist shape. The pointer finger points outwards directly in front the middle of the chest.

Give

Both hands are open with palms facing upwards. The hands are placed in front of the stomach and then shifted forward away from the body.

Me

The pointer finger is extended with the rest of the fingers in a fist position. The finger is pointed in towards the middle of the chest.

The

The pointer finger is extended and the rest of the fingers are in a fist position. The finger points away from the body slightly to the side.

Nouns

Pen

One hand is placed in front of the body with an open palm in line with the belly button. The fingers are together and the palm is facing up towards the face. The other hand is in a relaxed fist with the pointer and thumb's fingers touching. This hand creates a 'wave' shape in the air travelling across the open palm.

Phone

The hand is placed into a fist where the thumb is under the pointer finger. The hand is placed on the opposite ear. The other hand is placed on the existing hand in a relaxed fist shape and moved in a straight line directly pulling away from the ear.

Drink

One hand is shaped in a C. The thumb is moved up towards the mouth and the C shape is tilted so the remaining fingers are moving towards the eyes.

Chair

One hand has an open palm placed upright in front of the body at chest height. The palm is facing to the side. The other hand is placed next to the other hand upright with the fingers bent over into the palm of the other hand. The hands are placed in front of the body at the neck level and brought downwards to a chest level.

Food

The pointer finger is curled into a hook shape with the rest of the fingers in a fist shape. This finger is placed on the chin and repeated twice.
