Art with a purpose

These artists created artwork that could be used by lots of people.

Their art is nice to look at, but it was also created with at least one other purpose in mind.

Breathing Pavilion by Ekene Ijeoma - New York

Breathing Pavilion is an outdoor art installation that is intended to create calm by mimicking the speed of a deep breathing technique.

It is a circular space surrounded by columns that light up at intervals. It provides a space for residents to take a moment and catch their breath.

COSMO by Andrés Jaque and his architecture firm - New York

COSMO is a gigantic structure that features an impressive arrangement of plants and pipes.

It was developed by an architect to process nearly 4000 litres of polluted water a day and make it clean and drinkable.

Amphitheatre by Marta Pan - Netherlands

Amphitheatre is created out of granite and is located in the Kroller-Muller Museum and Sculpture Park.

It was created to provide people with a place for viewing entertainment. It has tiers of seating surrounding the performance area.

Winding Path Labyrinth, by Andrew Rogers - Nepal

Winding Path Labyrinth is a large-scale geoglyph made out of stone. It has a single continuous winding path with several loops that lead to the centre.

A labyrinth is used for spiritual contemplation. It is a work to be experienced on foot and represents a journey and pilgrimage.

It can also be seen from very far away.
