

Your Knowledge, Her Safety

Legal education to support women's safety at home, work and online

Women's Legal Service NSW provides free, trauma informed legal advice to women in NSW.
We advocate for gender equality and a fair legal system.
We've been travelling around NSW giving women free legal advice for over 40 years.

1800 810 784

LegalHelp@wlsnsw.org.au

Club Taree
121 Wingham Rd
Thursday 20 August 2026
9:30am - 4:00pm

This session is for community workers who support women, including social workers, health workers, GPs and those working with First Nations women and migrant women.

You will learn from legal specialists in domestic, family and sexual violence, workplace discrimination and safety planning.

You will learn about

- Tech-facilitated abuse such as AI and image-based abuse
- Domestic violence and ADVOs
- Tech and financial safety planning
- Sexual harassment at work
- Workplace rights
- The Victims Support Scheme

$30
tickets

Click to register now

Free tickets for First Nations and migrant women and organisations.

Morning tea, light lunch, tea and coffee provided.

Please bring your laptop or smartphone.

We know that many community workers are women who carry most of the caring and family responsibilities. We will accommodate these responsibilities as best we can.